WHAT MAKE US DIFFERENT

When you partner with TRAVEL OZ GLOBAL, you're not just gaining international TV and social media exposure — you're gaining long-term marketing assets through professional-grade footage.

We work closely with clients to ensure we're delivering tailored content that connects and inspires. Our stories have won multiple awards, including Best International Story and Top Travel Broadcaster at the Australian Society of Travel Writers' Awards. Our hosts work across multiple platforms — television, radio, print and online — giving them numerous opportunities to share their experiences and your content with audiences everywhere.

Our experienced team delivers broadcast-quality footage using multiple cameras, including drone coverage for breathtaking aerial perspectives that showcase your destination at its best. Every shoot meets the standards required for national television, ensuring your brand looks world-class on screen.

All imagery and footage captured during filming is provided for your own promotional use, tailored to highlight exactly what you want to showcase — ready for your social media, website, digital campaigns and marketing materials, extending your reach long after the episode airs.

With TRAVEL OZ GLOBAL, the team, equipment and delivery are all included as part of your investment — premium media assets, unparalleled exposure and exceptional value in one package.
